THE REAL JACK JOHNSON

Mrs. Johnson. Jack Johnson. The Chauffeur.

Photograph to-day showing colored pugilist in his $5,000 automobile, his wife at the wheel and his chauffeur, who formerly worked for W. K. Vanderbilt.

KETCHEL CAN'T KNOCK ME OUT, SAYS JOHNSON

"The Ketchel knocked out O'Brien just as I expected," remarked Jack Johnson, the colored champion, to-day, "but that was no loss to me. Ketchel can't beat me and never could."

"There's no use trying to compare my fight with O'Brien with the Ketchel-O'Brien fight. When I heard O'Brien a few weeks ago both Ketchel and Kaufman, men I am sure to fight later on, were at his camp and with their eyes wide open and their tongues in their mouths."

"To just think I was foolish enough to show my hand with this would-be champion, I had no idea I was going to get into a fight with O'Brien and put him down. I had heard he was a good fighter, but I had heard that Philadelphia Jack was the best."

"The Ketchel has a good punch; there's no doubt about that. I figured he would knock O'Brien away in four or five rounds, but I believed he would go right after me, knowing he had nothing to fear from me. I am sure I will be able to handle him. He has come only with a few blows, but I have come out with a few more. Let him think so. Let him go and see how he likes it."

"4 STRAIGHT, YOU RED SOX," CRY THE FANS

AMERICAN LEAGUE.
BOSTON, June 10.—The fans of the Boston Red Sox were in a state of excitement to-day, when the team was defeated by the New York Yankees, 4 to 3, in the first game of the series. The fans were in the stands, and many of them were crying "4 straight, you Red Sox," as the Yankees won the game.

HUNTINGTON AVENUE GROUNDS.
June 10.—A week kind of a day it was for baseball, but the fans couldn't resist the chance of seeing the Red Sox put the Yankees to rest. The fans were in the stands, and many of them were crying "4 straight, you Red Sox," as the Yankees won the game.

LOPEZ OF TERROR AS BIG STEAMER POUNDS IN SAND

NEW YORK, June 10.—The 526 passengers of the Spanish liner Antonio Lopez, which ran aground on a sandbar at Fire Island beach in the midst of the northeast storm, were taken off today in the peril of their lives, in a single lifeboat after many days and were placed aboard the big ocean tug Relief.

The revenue cutter Mohawk, summoned by wireless from the Fire Island light, reached the vicinity of the stranded vessel after the men, women and children got away from the ship. The Lopez was then transferred to the Relief, and the passengers were taken to the shore.

The Lopez was a big steamer, and it was a terrible sight to see it stuck in the sand. The passengers were taken off in lifeboats, and the ship was left to rot.

LOPEZ WHO FIGURED IN VANDERBILT CASE DIES LIFE TODAY

LONDON, June 10.—Agnes O'Brien Ruiz, the divorced wife of Antonio Ruiz, Cuban diplomat, and the woman whose name was coupled with that of Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt shortly before his wife divorced him, shot and killed herself in a hotel in this city, according to information made public to-day.

All the facts concerning the woman's death have been surrounded with an air of mystery, but it is now known that she killed herself May 11 last, and that as of that instant was held three days later. The facts were suppressed through some mysterious, but powerful influence in London, which was the cause of the woman's death.

The very fact that there was an inquest did not become known until today, now it appears that Mrs. Ruiz shot herself while in bed. She is said to have been suffering from some form of heart disease at the time. It is understood that the body was shipped to New York, and that it is now there.

attractive. She has been called the "Hot Girl" by her friends and retains some of the prettiest models on the list. She is a resident of the Back Bay and owns property on Newbury.

She didn't plan to press the case," when I was ready to drop it, and I told Hutchinson so the other day. It took me a long time to get over it. I was engaged to Mr. Hutchinson. I have very good grounds for the case. My lawyers assure me, but I don't want to ruin my daughter and I do not wish her to ruin her mother's name as figuring in the case. She is away in school now and I don't want to tell her about it. Her feelings overcame her and she sank into a deep depression. She has a sofa and burst into tears.

"I know her very first question was 'Where's granddaddy?' I loved me. He always told me he missed my company to that of any one in the world. Not a day passed where business took him away from me but I'd hear his cheery good morning and 'phone and every evening, when I was, he would call me up and wish me a pleasant good night. I had no idea but that he would marry me the day I said the word."

NOT STOLEN WOOL
 PM. June 10.—Henry P. Garrity o appeared before Judge Fox in the Court to-day charged with larceny from the American Woolen Company. Lawrence (Garrity pleaded guilty to five counts of stealing wool, and not guilty of ten counts of larceny. The larceny counts were dropped. The guilty will come up for sentence later.

 mystery surrounding the unaccounted disappearance of Dennis J. Monahan a few months ago, to-day was partially cleared up, when the body was found floating in the Charles River, near the Cambridge to-day. The body is a young man, about 25 years of age. It is estimated that it is impossible to determine the cause of death, but it is believed that it is accidental death. Monahan lived at No. 97 Columbia street.

TOR, 74, GUILTY OF SELLING LIQUOR

Francis Cragin, seventy-four years old, of Walpole street, No. 40, was found today in the Dedham District Court guilty of selling liquor. He was fined $50 and costs. Dr. Cragin was held in jail for two weeks and was held in $300. Police Fred Sackett produced fifteen bottles of illegal rum in Cragin's home. The case was heard in court which was held in a room in the doctor's place two weeks ago.

GETTING PIE,

CHOKED HIS WIFE

CHURCH, June 10.—"I did not make any mistake," said Harriet R. Schiela, when I said I should. He wanted to know if I was sure, and I said I was. But I was too sick to make them any more. He choked me and struck me with his hands. I was so sick that I could not get away," said Mrs. Harriet R. Schiela, a 40-year-old, Leominster, to Judge Hitchcock during a hearing on her husband's case. The case is being heard by Judge Adams. Judge Hitchcock withheld a verdict until another witness is procured. Schiela said: "He threatened to kill me five years ago. He killed me in 1901. He had a terrible temper. We were together three times, and I went back three times. He used me cruelly several times. He would not live with him."

BOOMS GO UP;

NEW YORK, June 10.—Booms, apparitions and other things were heard in the last thing in the domestic life of the Patten family.

be attacked by the high price in the market have jumped forty per cent. in value. The housewife no longer can shake her head at wheat and the wheat man is not so really paying tribute to the farmer's produce. These can make money raising wheat and make these bring broom corn, with the present high prices. The farmers can make money. The residence of No. 115 Warren street says: "They are cutting broom corn and their crop flat."

Mrs. Chandler Doubts Wedding News Says Boy Millionaire Still Loves Her

Byron D. Chandler and his first wife.

By VIOLA RODGERS.

NEW YORK, June 10.—"I do not believe that Byron Chandler will ever marry the woman who caused me to divorce him," Mrs. Chandler said today. "I have never loved her since that September, 1917, when she told me that she was going to marry me. I have never loved her since that September, 1917, when she told me that she was going to marry me. I have never loved her since that September, 1917, when she told me that she was going to marry me."

When Chandler told his wife, Grace Chandler, who has just returned from an interview with the press, that he had never loved her since that September, 1917, when she told him that she was going to marry him, she was sitting at the typewriter in the room where she had been working for him. She was looking at him with a sad expression on her face. She was looking at him with a sad expression on her face. She was looking at him with a sad expression on her face.

Love at First Sight.

Mrs. Chandler is an attractive little woman, with deep blue eyes and wavy, brown hair. She is sitting at a desk in a room that is filled with books and papers. She is looking at the camera with a sad expression on her face. She is looking at the camera with a sad expression on her face. She is looking at the camera with a sad expression on her face.

But that they could not be married at the time, Mrs. Chandler said, she was not sure that she had ever loved him. She was not sure that she had ever loved him. She was not sure that she had ever loved him. She was not sure that she had ever loved him. She was not sure that she had ever loved him.

When she told him that she was going to marry him, she was sitting at the typewriter in the room where she had been working for him. She was looking at him with a sad expression on her face. She was looking at him with a sad expression on her face. She was looking at him with a sad expression on her face.

Kidney and Liver Pills.

Mr. Lyander C. Figg of Chicago Ill., says, owing to kidney and liver trouble, he was so run down that he had to quit work. On the advice of a friend, he tried Warner's Safe Cure, and within two months was a well man.

"Last Spring I was in poor health, my system was run down and debilitated. Cause, liver and kidney trouble. I lacked energy or ambition to do my work and felt that I must have a change and rest."

I was advised to give Warner's Safe Cure a trial. I found it most effective that in two months I was a well man. I cannot praise it too highly for the people who suffer from kidney and liver trouble. Lyander C. Figg, Wychemore Hotel, Chicago, Ill.

Put some morning urine in a glass or bottle, let it stand 24 hours. If there is a reddish sediment in the bottom of the glass, or if the urine is cloudy or milky or if you see particles or grains, your kidneys are diseased and you should get a bottle of Warner's Safe Cure at once.

Then if you have any doubt as to the development of the disease in your system, send a sample of your urine, put in a glass or bottle, to the nearest Medical Dispensary, where we will analyze it and send you a report, with advice and medical books free.

When the kidneys are diseased the urine is not carried off and causes rheumatism, backache, gout, diabetes and Bright's Disease. Warner's Safe Cure drives out the uric acid and prevents and cures all forms of kidney disease.

Constipation, Bilioussness & Indigestion

When the bowels are not in motion, the liver is inactive, and the bile, instead of being eliminated by the intestines, is taken up by the blood. In consequence the liver is clogged, and the blood is impure. Bilioussness attacks the skin becomes sallow and rough. As the appetite, fails in the face and you feel out of sorts, and should take Warner's Safe Pills, purely vegetable, sugar-coated, absolutely free from injurious substances, perfect laxative, they cure indigestion, biliousness, and all liver and constipation. They do not grip or leave any bad after effects.

WARNER'S SAFE CURE To put in a glass or bottle, to the nearest Medical Dispensary, where we will analyze it and send you a report, with advice and medical books free.

Our Week-End Clearance Sale

Every Friday and Saturday we hold special sales of seasonable merchandise at new low prices—small lots and broken lines—all desirable goods, but in most cases kinds that we cannot duplicate or will not reorder, and accordingly marked at quick moving figures.

These sales serve a double purpose—they not only bring forward extraordinary values, but are as well the means of keeping stocks constantly clean and fresh. Thus instead of clearance sales only semi-annually, quarterly or even monthly, we have clearances every week in the year.

THE MAN WHO STOLE THE EARTH

The great tug-of-war for the mastery of the world is now being fought in the Literary Section of the SUNDAY AMERICAN.

The day is going, and going fast, and going forever, when unscrupulous men can openly humbug and defraud the public with fake preparations for the hair. The day is close at hand when no sane men or women will put anything on their hair or head unless they know exactly what it is. People are realizing more and more that hair and scalp troubles generally are overcome by simply keeping the head clean, Dandruff, as a rule, is a condition arising from neglect to cleanse the scalp regularly with the proper cleanser. From the pores of the scalp there comes an oily secretion, together with dead-up cells, and other waste matter that Nature is through with and discards. The oily secretion is intended to keep the scalp soft and the hair lubricated. But the trouble is that dust, dirt and disease germs float around in the air and settle on this oily matter, which holds them fast. In a short time scales or dandruff form on the scalp, and the pores become clogged. The hair roots do not receive the proper nourishment, and soon the hair falls out, sometimes so badly that baldness is only a little way off. You must take "tonics," "invigorators," and thought it came suddenly when he answered the last summons. As late as yesterday afternoon father had been sitting out on the veranda, and he was out on Sunday afternoon.

WHICH NATIONAL JOURNALS DEATH OF DR. HALE

PRESIDENT TELEGRAPHS OF CONDOLENCE

At his bedside were mother, my sister, Ellen H. Hale, and myself, besides the physician, Dr. Temple.

"The end came very peacefully. He appeared to suffer no pain, but sank into slumber, as though the tired frame were worn out. The heart trouble was only in the breathing down of old age."

"We cannot say much as to the funeral yet until my brothers, Edward Everett Hale, and Arthur, arrive in the city. The service will probably be on Sunday, however."

Arthur Hale and Edward Everett Hale, 32, sons of Dr. Hale, have telegraphed that they will arrive in Boston on Sunday at the latest. The funeral will be held at the funeral home in New York city and the latter from Schenectady.

It was announced by the family that father would be in Boston this morning on Sunday at the latest.

Messages of Condolence.

The news of the death of Dr. Hale came as a distinct shock to Boston. It was not generally known that he was ill, other than from a slight cold. When the friends of Mrs. Julia Ward Hale were gathered for their birthday anniversary two weeks ago today at her home on State street, Dr. Hale was there. The chat between him and Mrs. Hale was one of the most delightful features of that social gathering.

Messages of condolence began to reach the Hale home early in the forenoon. One of the first to be received by Mrs. Hale was from President Theodore Roosevelt.

At the time of his death Dr. Hale was chairman of the board of directors of the chapter of the Order of the Sons of the American Revolution.

LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT CONTEST
CLOSES TODAY

What do think about "love at first sight"? Nearly everybody is writing about it for the BOSTON AMERICAN's fifty prizes, which will be distributed among the producers of the best articles on the subject. The contest closes at 6 o'clock to-night.

In "The Travelling Salesman," playing at the Park Theatre, the plot hinges upon a case of "love at first sight." The hero calls love over heels in love with the heroine the first time he sees her, he discovers she reciprocates, and he pops the question. She accepts him.

Now, in the course of human events, do

Keep your articles within 150 words, write on one side of the paper only, and send them to the Editor at First Night, 100 State Street, Boston. No letter postmarked later than 6 o'clock to-night will be accepted in the contest.

NO YANKEES IN OLYMPIA RACE

LONDON, June 10.—Americans in London are disappointed at the absence of representation for their country in the contest Tuesday for the King's gold cup in the Olympia horse show, offered for competition by military officers of all nations.

They declare it is a disgrace that the United States Army, whose cavalry has such reputation for dash and daring, should have shown such seeming indifference in this friendly test.

An American military officer said today: "Fine as was the exhibition made by the victorious Frenchmen, I believe we

It is deemed certain that next year the United States War Department will be represented.

VANDERBILT PEACE BALKED

NEWPORT, R. I., June 10.—Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is on her way home from Europe to act as peacemaker between her son, W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., and his wife. Mrs. Belmont will come to New York and occupy Marble house for the first time since she divorced W. K. Vanderbilt, Sr. Her sons, W. K. and Harold will accompany her and later the Duchess of Marlborough is expected.

Managers Frank Chance claims that the hardest job he ever undertook was to convince his players that they were going to win the pennant. "I told all the relief and bench players, 'I want you to be in the game and win a check (physically), I want you to be in the game and win a check (emotionally). I want you to be in the game and win a check (manager one cent) from the bench.'"

Are the French
Decadent?

As Well As, Is Niagara
Decadent? Is the Sun Decadent?

Professor David Starr Jordan made a public speech and was understood to say that the French are a decadent nation. That professor Jordan now announces that he was misunderstood; we hope that he was.

The French nation is about as far from being decadent as anything existing on top of the earth. This is as good a time as any to say a few things about the French. The French have taught the rest of the world for centuries, and they are teaching the rest of the world TO-DAY.

The French teach us how to make silk, and plate glass, and whole-ome, temperate wines, and how to cook, and how to think logically.

The French are lending us money—tens of millions—to build our railroads and our factories. The French working people ACTUALLY HAVE SAVED UP more money than any nation in the world.

And the people have it, the workers, the little people, not a handful of millionaires.

Our big men, having borrowed some tens of millions from the French, are now asking them to lend us hundreds of millions more to finish our national building.

The French in their public schools feed the poor children—they feed their stomachs as well as their minds. AND THEY ARRANGE MATTERS SO THAT NO ONE CAN TELL WHICH CHILD IS FED FREE AND WHICH PAYS FOR ITS FOOD.

They save the child from a double curse—the curse of poverty and the curse of advertised charity.

They are not like those hypocrites who feed the mind of the starved child and refuse to feed the starved body. Unlike us, they do not allow the childhood of poverty in the great city to become a breeding ground for consumption.

Throughout all of their national history, as to-day, the French have been close, earnest, bold thinkers. Theirs were the brains that taught and inspired Franklin and Jefferson.

The encyclopedists, such men as Rousseau and Voltaire, built not only the French Revolution, but the American republic as well.

The French, in all of their national life, have been great fighters, great musicians, orators, engineers, manufacturers.

They have been a great teaching nation, and the rest of the world has been their pupil.

The French family life to-day—stupidly maligned by ignorance in this country—is the most perfect life that exists.

Any man who should call France decadent would simply expose his own pitiful ignorance. He would not succeed in hurting the feelings of any Frenchman. It doesn't hurt the feelings of a big locomotive when a small dog barks at it.

An Editorial for Nine Gentlemen

They Can Answer It, AND THEY OUGHT TO ANSWER IT
Copyright, 1909, by American-Journal-Examiner

The Sugar Trust has been stealing money from the government. It has BEEN STEALING MONEY. The cheating was of the commonest, lowest kind. Paid agents of the Sugar Trust falsified the government weighing machines, and cheated the people of a part of the duty on every kind of sugar weighed.

The polite name of the Sugar Trust is "The American Sugar Refining Company." Nine men make up the board of directors of this company, and they are responsible for it.

These nine men are:
Horace Havemeyer
Arthur Donner
John E. Parsons
George H. Frazier
Charles H. Senff
Washington B. Thomas
John Mayer
Henry E. Niese
Henry C. Mott.

These are the nine men that know, or ought to know, about the stealing done BY THEIR EMPLOYEES. They are the men supposed to look after the company, and supposed, if they are honorable men, not to allow common swindling and stealing for the sake of profits.

An attempt was made to put the blame for the stealing on Havemeyer, A DEAD MAN. That was about as low as the stealing itself. The nine directors of the Sugar Trust are alive, AND THEY OUGHT TO HAVE SOMETHING TO SAY.

What is their excuse for this swindling of the public? What have they done to stop such swindling in the future? Why don't they see to it—if they are innocent—that the guilty thieves are put in jail?

It is about time to make the directors of our big practical concerns responsible for the piracy, for the thieving, the bribing and general wholesale and retail delinquency.

These nine men are the directors of a concern that is nothing more or less than a public thief and swindler. It will be interesting to hear from them.

Attacks on Christian Science

From the beginning of the world people have played less fair in their religious controversies than in any other kind of war.

The onset of Mrs. Della M. Gilbert no doubt derived a good deal of its confidence and momentum from the assumption that the public loves to find fault with religious leaders.

But Mrs. Gilbert seems to have overhauled the mark this time. The public is tired of the hue and cry against Christian Science and not a little sympathetic with the dignified old lady who presides over the councils of that church.

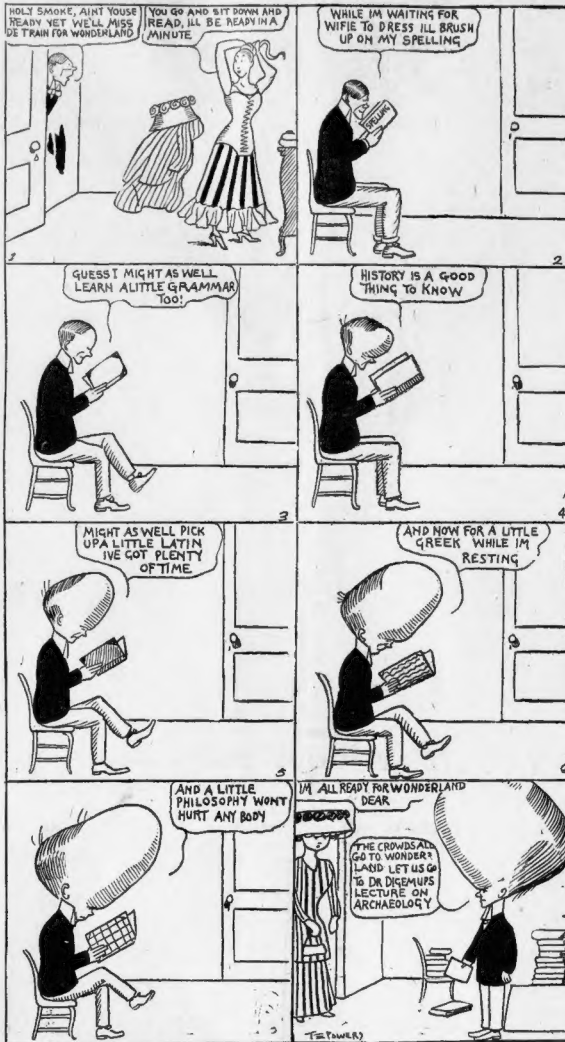

The letter which Mrs. Gilbert wrote to Mr. Clifford Smith may be couched, as she says, in the language of Christian Science, but it was the kind of letter not unfamiliar to public prosecutors, despite the disguise.

POETRY is a form of writing which takes up more space than prose. This is because each line is separate and begins with a capital letter. The amount of meaning is about the same to each page, because the prose writer says the same thing six times, while the poet says it once. But we will now speak of other great poets with America has produced. If Mister Swinburne didn't think we had any Keats or Shelley, how about
